Gentlemen:

This letter will record our understanding with respect to our mandate to represent your interests in connection with the pending escape clause proceeding concerning imported footwear. The International Trade Commission has recommended to the President that he impose tariff-rate quotas on virtually all imports of nonrubber footwear. The quota allocations proposed by the Commission are based on 1974 imports, and Uruguay would not have a separate quota, but would share the quota applicable to "all other" countries. In view of the rapid expansion of Uruguayan exports to the United States since 1974, you wish to retain us for the purpose of attempting, in the event that quotas are imposed, to obtain a separate quota for Uruguay that would reflect this expansion. We would undertake, with your assistance, to prepare a memorandum setting forth the case for granting a specific quota to Uruguay, and then to present the matter to the appropriate officials in the government departments concerned.

Our fees will be in accordance with the usual and customary charges we make in matters of this nature, and will be based primarily upon our usual hourly time charges. We will also submit statements for our out-of-pocket expenses incurred on your behalf, including such items as travel expenditures, taxi fares, long-distance calls, and expenses of necessary overtime secretarial work, xerox and other reproduction costs, and the like.

If the arrangement as described above is satisfactory with you, we would appreciate it if you would indicate your approval on the enclosed copy of this letter and return it to us.

Very truly yours,

Arnold & Porter
